

No Smoking Signs

On July 1st 2007 England introduced a new law to make virtually all public places and workplaces in England smoke free.

Under the new legislation all company owned vehicles that are used by more than one person, must display the official “No Smoking” symbol at the minimum size of 70mm in diameter.

The ban applies to cars, vans and Lorries at all times if they can be used by one or more persons, as driver or passenger, regardless of whether they are in the vehicle at the same time.

The “No Smoking” sign has to be in each compartment of the vehicle in which people can sit.

The penalty for not displaying a sign is a fixed-penalty notice of £200, reduced to £150 if paid within 15 days, or a maximum fine of £1,000 if convicted by a court.
